DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims, 1, 2 and 15 – 33, drawn to an anti-rattle support device, classified in class 280, subclass 506.
 - II. Claims 3 - 14, drawn to an equipment holder, classified in class 224, subclass 924.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it does not require the stabilizing or force applying means. The subcombination has separate utility such as an anti-rattle device for a trailer hitch.

3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. This application further contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of anti-rattle devices:

LESLEY D. MORRIS
SUPERVISORY PATENT EXAMINER
TECHNOLOGY CENTER 3600

Art Unit: 3611

Species A, drawn to figure 3B (sheet 4).

Species B, drawn to figure 3B (sheet 5).

Species C, drawn to figure 2B.

Species D, drawn to figure 12B.

Species E, drawn to figure 5.

Species F, drawn to figure 7.

Species G, drawn to figure 8B.

Species H, drawn to figure 10A.

5. This application further contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct sub-species of mounting devices:

Sub-Species 1, drawn to figure 14A.

Sub-Species 2, drawn to figure 12.

Sub-Species 3, drawn to figure 15.

Sub-Species 4, drawn to figure 16.

The species and subspecies are independent or distinct because of their materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect, as seen by their distinct features shown in the various figures.

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species and subspecies for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims appear generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species and subspecies that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. A telephone call was made to Herbert Hanegan on 6/1/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species and subspecies or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species and subspecies may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Art Unit: 3611

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species and subspecies are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Daniel Yeagley whose telephone number is (571)-272-6655. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon. - Fri; first Friday off.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Lesley D. Morris can be reached on (571) - 272 - 6651. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
